VICTORIOUS LIFE BIBLE INSTITUTE

BASIC - MINISTERIAL PREPARATION

2009 - 2010

{Practical Ministerial Application Course}

The Ministerial Preparation curriculum consists of seven courses taught over 30 weeks and is designed to prepare and equip Bible students for the work of the ministry. These are not college-level courses.

I BIBLE RESEARCH TOOLS

Minister Anthony Cecil, Instructor

This class provides students with an introduction to the different versions of the Bible; how to use concordances, commentaries and study aides, and an overview of computer software for Bible study. Students will learn how to do word studies, scripture analysis and how to use the various tools necessary to effectively minister the Word of God.

II TRAINING FOR SERVICE

Sister Cindy Middlebrooks, Instructor

This class provides students with an in-depth, practical, systematic Bible study program for serious students as it is designed to motivate believers to make a deeper commitment to serve the Lord to the best of their abilities and talents.

III CHRISTIAN PEDAGOGY

Sister J. Dollie Rainey, Instructor

This class provides students with an introduction to the methods of effectively teaching children and youth (nursery thru 17 years of age) Biblical principles in the Church. Students will learn the importance of spiritual preparation, methods of teaching, and how to compose a lesson plan. Course work may include a teaching practicum as a requirement for completion.

IV MINISTERIAL ETHICS AND PULPIT ETIQUETTE

Evang. Sherry Nunn, Instructor

This class teaches students the ministerial protocols, customs, and courtesies necessary for today's ministers of the Gospel. Students will learn the essence of balancing their family life, church commitments, and professional relationships.

V INTRODUCTION TO HOMILETICS

Elder Ravon Rainey, Instructor

This class teaches the importance of organizing and structuring a sermon, and a study of the different types and styles of sermons.

VI BASIC DOCTRINES

Minister Kevin Patterson, Instructor

An in-depth study of the six basic principles of the Christian Foundation of Faith as outlined in the book of Hebrews. The principles of the doctrines of Dead Works, Faith, Baptisms, Laying on of Hands, The Resurrection, and The Judgments are studied individually and collectively. These doctrines are the foundation of the Christian faith and must be learned and understood in order to function in the ministry of Jesus Christ.

VII CHURCH HISTORY

Elder Kevin Britton, Instructor

This class provides the students with a detailed, adventurous journey through the history of the Church and covers the four major periods of the Church from the Day of Pentecost to the present: the Ancient Church, the Medieval Church, the Reformation Church and the Modern Church. The class is designed to provide Christians with an overview of their spiritual heritage.
